Mission Integration Institute Faculty

Reverend Monsignor Daniel J. Dillabough
Vice President for Mission and Ministry, University of San Diego

Monsignor Dillabough is Vice President for Mission and Ministry at the University of San Diego. Prior to his taking this position in 1998, he served the Diocese of San Diego, as Chancellor, Moderator of Diocesan Offices, Director of Clergy Personnel, Director of Temporal Affairs, and Judicial Vicar. He also taught at North American College in Rome and has been a guest lecturer in Theology and Religious Studies at USD. Msgr. Dillabough was ordained in 1974. Msgr. Dillabough has earned a B.A. in Philosophy and English from USD, a S.T.B. in Sacred Theology from the Gregorian University, a J.C.L. in Canon Law from the Pontifical University, Propaganda Fide, Rome, and a S.T.D. in Moral Theology from the Lateran University.

Donald Godwin, Ed.D.
Assistant Vice President and Dean of Students, University of San Diego

Donald Godwin, Assistant Vice President and Dean of Students, was appointed to his role at the University of San Diego in January 2007. Prior to his post at USD, he served as Dean of Students at Marywood University, as well as other Student Affairs administrative posts at Villanova University and Marist College. He earned his doctoral degree in Higher Education Leadership from Widener University, and he also holds a Master of Public Administration degree from Marist College. For over two decades, Donald’s work in higher education has focused on working with young adults to develop the knowledge and skills to create a more just society.

Lisa Kirkpatrick, M.Ed.
Associate Vice President for Student Affairs, Dean of Students, St. Edward’s University

Lisa Kirkpatrick provides supervisory leadership to Residence Life and Student Life, as well as the areas of Student Conduct and Undergraduate Student and Parent Orientation programs. She is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Education at Texas State University, and holds a bachelor’s degree in Journalism and a Master of Education from The Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. Lisa is a graduate of Leadership Austin and Harvard University’s Institute for Management and Leadership in Education.
Fr. David McCallum, Ed.D., S.J.
Director of Mission and Identity, and interim Dean, Madden School of Business, Le Moyne College

Fr. David McCallum, S.J. is a Jesuit (Roman Catholic) priest and educator. After he completed his Ed.D. in Adult Learning and Leadership at Columbia University, Teachers College, he began service at Le Moyne College as special assistant to the president for Strategic Planning and Leadership Development. He now serves as the Director of Mission & Identity and as the interim Dean of the Madden School of Business at Le Moyne. Fr. McCallum provides consultation on change management, leadership and organizational development, facilitation, and offers spiritual retreats.

Carmen M. Vazquez
Vice President, Student Affairs, University of San Diego

Carmen M. Vazquez was appointed Vice President, Student Affairs, at the University of San Diego in 2005. She has many years of experience as a student affairs educator and practitioner. She began her career at the State University of New York at Stony Brook where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and sociology and a Master of Social Work. She has served in various positions at Stony Brook, including adjunct faculty in the school of social welfare, dean of students and assistant vice president for alumni relations. She served as assistant vice chancellor for student life at the University of California, San Diego, from 2002-2005. She is dedicated to the holistic development of students.