LIMITED TIME OFFER! September 1 through November 30, 2015

Enroll in three R.E.A.D. Part I Series courses in the same online transaction and receive a 33% discount on all three enrollments—that equates to one free course.

Turn Your Reading Into Positive and Effective Improvement in Your Classroom or at Your School

Read, Empower, Act, Discover (R.E.A.D.) Part I Series consists of one-unit independent study courses designed for educators who want to launch a critical dialogue on today's issues and concerns that affect our schools, portrayed in one or more of our preselected book titles. Engage with literature to promote continuous improvement and professional development. Over 100 book titles to choose from!

Get started and register for a course today!

Printable Booklist/Book Descriptions

- Three R.E.A.D. Part I Series course enrollments must be made during the same online transaction. Ensure that all three courses in your cart reflect the discount by adding it to the Discount box in your cart for each course, using the drop down selection.

- Previous enrollments or separate enrollment transactions will not qualify for this promotion.
- The three enrollments must be made in one person’s account and cannot be transferred to another party.
- The discount will only display in your check-out cart when you have three R.E.A.D. Part I courses in your cart.
- If you are wishing to purchase more than three R.E.A.D. Part I courses, complete one transaction with the first three and then complete a separate transaction with the additional enrollments. The discount will only apply to multiples of three, and only three at a time.
- This discount is not applicable toward R.E.A.D. Part II courses, or any other USD PCE course.
- USD reserves the right to cancel, terminate or modify this promotion.