What Participants are saying...

“I took an independent study with you last summer and felt so productive and valued as a professional!”

— Amy Shieve, West Geauga School District, Novelty Ohio

“It was a very helpful course. I was able to make the parents of my students happy and welcomed. There’s more support from them now when it comes to their children’s behavior problems.”

— Tatyana Folger

“Teaching Art to Children showed me the possibilities of how to weave art into the required curriculum in a meaningful way. The students say, ‘Art makes learning fun!’ This class has brought a breath of fresh air to my classroom!”

— Jeanne Cramer, 3rd grade teacher

“I am glad I took this course from you, it was a real eye opener. I was unaware of all the different ways technology could be incorporated in the classroom, especially Physical Education.”

— Jill Toepfer, K-5 Physical Education teacher

“Even though I work with technology daily, I still found great value in the activities of this course and furthured my knowledge in this area. I have been very happy with all the continuing education courses I have taken so far through University of San Diego. I find the classes to be useful and relevant and I love the flexibility in the online self-paced classes

— CarolAnn Barr-Gutkowski, Teacher, Business Department, Dearborn Public Schools, Dearborn, MI

“...many of the projects I’ve completed for the course have sparked ideas about how to increase collaboration between faculty colleagues. Committee work, departmental projects, policy development I am most excited about the possibility of using the Forms/Survey tool in our assessment efforts, both at the course and program level.”

— Christina Goff, Community College Instructor

“It took me time, but I learned a lot about managing students’ behavior. I will recommend it to other teachers. It was worth it!”

— Angel Maldonado

“I would definitely recommend this course to another educator. It gave me such a simple yet effective way to help my students better their writing. Thank You!”

— Jodie Denithorne, Language Arts Teacher, Grade 7

“The instructor provides very elaborate and helpful feedback with each assignment. The input I received always exceeded my expectations as a fellow teacher.”

— Richard Sylvester, English Teacher, High School

“This course increased my technology knowledge tremendously. I actually took this class to satisfy a credit requirement for my teaching certificate...but now I am inspired to pursue an educational technology endorsement!”

— Shawna Haas, Substitute teacher, Department of Defense Schools, Bahrain
