What Participants are saying...

The mock court approach taken by the panel on recent litigation was exceptionally enlightening. All panelists were very good.

The opinions and points of view presented were not limited to just one or two networks. The mix of speakers (IRS, advisors, practitioners, academics) is quite beneficial.

The speakers were diverse; very knowledgeable. Also the panel on recent litigation did a great job mixing up the format.

A nice variety of speakers—very knowledgeable. Liked the mock court format and the academics.

Topics are very relevant & presented in an applied way. Very useful.

I enjoyed the role playing for the trial of 3M, Eaton, etc. The presenters were prepared and had very salient arguments for both sides. Made us think and pay close attention.

Dimensions of transfer pricing for topics and views from different angles (IRS, corporate, consulting/practitioners) are very helpful. The law case studies were also very helpful.

Great Symposium! I plan on returning.

What Participants liked best...

- Interaction of the speakers and practitioners
- Diversity of speakers and the level of content
- Networking opportunities
- Different views based on the backgrounds of panelists
- Interactive nature of discussions & presentation
- Good balance between mock court and the mix of topics
- Venue and organization of symposium